MRS. A. W. HICKLIN,
PHYSICIAN AND ELECTRICIAN,
No. 96 Front street, (upstairs), one door north of Kingsley's Brick Building.
MRS. HICKLIN WILL CURE ALL ACUTE NERvous and Chronic Diseases with Electricity and Water, without the use of medicine, and will apply the Electricity according to Prof. W. R. Wells' theory. Mrs. H. is experienced in the practice of medicine, but has done almost entirely away with its use, believing that ELECTRICITY IS THE ONLY SAFE REMEDIAL AGENT for the Cure of Disease. Medical men generally suppose that there are many causes for the various diseases in the system, and that one disease may have various causes in nature to produce it. We do not believe that there is but one grand cause for all disease, and this is a loss of balance of the two kinds of Electricity in the part or parts diseased.
We apply the current with sponges and never shock the patient; and would have you bear in mind that we have one of Prof. Wells' Double Current Electro-Galvanic Batteries, and can purify the blood, remove mercury ... and give tone to the system. We can Cure the worst cases of Rheumatism, Sore Eyes, Deafness ... and other curable diseases that the human family is subject to. ... You need not ask your ... the use and practice of one of Prof. Wells' batteries.
We are prepared to Board and Lodge those who come for treatment, and will spare no pains in supplying the best hygienic fare. We shall require terms of board reasonably in advance. All communications in regard to treatment, should be addressed,

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 18, 1865.

Andrew Johnson as President.

True to the reckless and suicidal policy that has actuated it from the first, rebellion has completed its own fate by its last dastardly act—one that will forever render its history accursed among men. From the soul of Abraham Lincoln it had reason to expect every concession he could in honor grant. Never had he for a moment entertained towards the South the bitterness of spirit that it extended to him; never had he allowed the passions of the hour to obtain a mastery, or permitted prejudice for an instant to sway the counsels of the nation. From him the baffled and disappointed rebels could expect much, for his was a nature capable of forgiving all that honor could overlook; capable of bestowing benefits in return for a multitude of injuries received.

If his assassination was planned and executed in the hope of embarrassing the administration of the Government, demoralizing the nation and aiding rebellion in its death gasp, the hope was but vain and futile. Every such act but adds to national unity, and calls more loudly into action the popular voice that is so omnipotent in free governments. The consequences of the act are not to be easily calculated; the wheels of government will roll on unhindered; the people will mourn a great and good man lost; but the immediate effect will be, to steel and harden every heart against the cause that calls to its aid the most barbarous and fiendish acts that can be conceived and executed.

Andrew Johnson, like Mr. Lincoln, came from the people, and like him has been much loved and trusted by them; but, while the one represented free soil and its interests, the other came from a State that early allied its fortunes to the rebellion. He was one of the noble few, who, loving country more than State, severed every tie that bound him to home and its associations, forgot the prejudices of a slave owner and nobly sided with the government. From the first the rebellion has found in Andrew Johnson its bitterest opponent, and to-day with him as the head of the Nation it has no tender mercy to expect and no conciliation to look for. Those who have been exiled by secession—who have fought it at home, and been rendered houseless by it, are not the men to woo it back to its allegiance by soft words of promise, or to cater to the tender feelings of vanquished chivalry by offers of free amnesty and forgotfulness. No, the stern hand of the ruler and the judge are more likely to be felt as a consequence of the succession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency. The death of Lincoln is one of the consequences of the rebellion, and bitterly the rebellion may have to expiate the act. We had hoped that the era of peace and good will had dawned upon us—that throwing aside the cannon, the bayonet and the sword, the people of these United States were about to embrace in fraternal unity, and in humility for past errors commence a new career, more pledged to harmony and therefore more certain of success.

The Nation is shocked by a grief greater than it has ever known. All classes are united in one common sentiment, for many who have bitterly opposed Mr. Lincoln as a President, recognized the good and great qualities he possessed as a man, and all feel the stain upon our National record, made ineffaceable by the murder of our Chief Magistrate. What we fear to-day is not for the North; not that our victories will pale or that the State may be demoralized, whatever acts may follow this. The majesty of our Republican Government stands vindicated to-day before the world, and we need not fear for it; but the thought of peace is tempered by the cry for vengeance, and the future is clouded as a consequence. We were proud to believe it possible that even the leaders of the rebellion might be permitted to live in exile and that the National clemency might work freely and kindly to cement the Union closer than ever. If this is not the case, and if, instead, stern justice is meeted out to Southern treason by a Southern President, it will be because the genial heart of Lincoln has ceased to beat; because, in the recklessness of its hate, rebellion has called down a heavier doom upon itself. Andrew Johnson is a man of noble heart, calm judgment and inflexible purposes. As an honest man, he is Lincoln's equal; as a Southern man of note, he is remarkable in this: that he was ignorant and uneducated, becoming at last, Governor of Tennessee, and Senator in Congress after being self-educated. He rose by force of native talent to greatness, contrary to the aristocratic precedent of Southern life, and stands to-day radically opposed to the aristocracy which never sympathized with his advancement. He represents that portion of the Southern people from whom we hope the most—the industrial classes, which have been kept down by the wealthy class slavery raised up. Such as he, and we can but leave the future in his hands, are confident that the God who is over all, will order for good the dispensations of the present hour.

REBEL PAPERS IN THE NORTH.—There is now a disposition all through the country to punish in a summary manner all Northern rebels whose sympathies are expressed in favor of the rebellion. These traitors have, in truth, been treated with too much leniency. Our noble President fell a victim to the trust he reposed in them. Their papers throughout the North will be compelled to modify their tone and use more temperate language, or take the consequences of their inhuman temerity. In some places these papers have already been destroyed by the people. We can, under no circumstances, counsel or approve the employment of violence. It is, however, a matter of regret that these papers were not long ago suppressed by law.

THE LAST REBEL ARMY.—Johnston's army, consisting of the debris of the scattered forces of the rebels, seems to be making an effort to retreat Southward. It is not likely that Johnston will succeed in escaping the vigilance of Sherman and the activity of Sheridan, and if he makes his escape to Augusta, whither it is reported he is going, he will probably be compelled to move with such rapidity that he will leave his army behind him. The idea that the rebels yet have the power and resources to maintain any efficient organization is an absurdity worthy only of that parish known as a "Peace Democrat."

RAILROAD BILL.—The bill granting Congressional aid for the construction of the Oregon and California Railroad, passed the House of Representatives a short time prior to the adjournment of Congress. No action was had upon the bill by the Senate. The Bulletin's Washington correspondent says that the matter was neglected by the California Senators on account of the jealousies existing between Mr. Conness and Mr. Cole, of the House. An amendment was added to the bill which required the road to be completed for a distance of twenty miles each year. It is hoped that some aid of this kind will hereafter be given.

DATES TO APRIL 13.

The Sad News Received at Halifax.

HALIFAX, April 1[illegible].—The Governor had appointed to-day for giving his assent to the bills passed, with the usual ceremonies, but upon the receipt of the news of President Lincoln's murder, he sent [illegible] to the Council. [illegible]

[illegible]

(Signed) RICHARD GRAVES.

HALIFAX, April [illegible].—Upon the announcement of the death of President Lincoln, Parliament adjourned. The flags on the Government House, Citadel, American Consulate, and on American vessels in port, were placed at half mast. Deep sympathy prevailed in the minds of all friends of the Union. The old Skane runner Colonel Lamb was gaily decked with flags, which were ordered down by the naval authorities.

Johnson's Inauguration.

WASHINGTON, April 1[illegible].—An official dispatch was sent to Andrew Johnson, Vice President this A. M., stating, in consequence of the sudden and unexpected death of the President, his inauguration should take place as soon as possible. Johnson replied that it would be agreeable to him to have proceedings take place at his rooms in the Kirkwood House. Chief Justice Chase repaired to the appointed place in company with Secretary McCulloch, Attorney General Speed, F. P. Blair, Montgomery Blair, Senators Foote, Ramsay, Yates, Stewart of Nevada, Hale and Representative Farnsworth of Illinois. The oath of office was administered at 11 o'clock, in a solemn and impressive manner. Johnson received the kind expressions of the gentlemen present in a manner which showed earnest sense of the great responsibility which so suddenly devolved upon him. He made a brief speech, saying the duties of the office are mine, and I will perform them. The consequences are with God. Gentlemen, I feel I shall need your support. I am deeply impressed with the solemnity of the occasion and responsibility of the office. Johnson appeared in remarkably good health, and has a full sense of hopes that are centered upon him. His manner was solemn and dignified. His probable President Johnson will issue his first proclamation to the American people to-day. It is expected that it is definitely determined upon that the funeral of the late President will take place Thursday.

Retribution Must Come.

NEW YORK, April 1[illegible], 9 A. M.—Intense sorrow is depicted on all countenances at the event that occurred in Washington last night. The [illegible] all good men was apparent everywhere, at the demise of the President, and when the news of affairs was known, all the flags were placed at half mast. The people appear perfectly horrified, and the utmost rage is undoubtedly felt for all known secessionists and rebel sympathizers.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The city is in tears. The nation is mourning, but the country still lives. The tender sympathies of the late lamented President can no longer shield traitors from their just reward. Mercy must give place to justice. The ghosts of the thousands whom treason has murdered must be appeased. An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth.

How the President was Murdered.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Miss Harris, who was in the box with the President, makes the following statement: Nearly an hour before the commission of the deed, the assassin came to the door of the box, looked in and took a survey of the position and its occupants. It was thought at the time that it was either a mistake or the exercise of impertinent curiosity. The circumstance attracted no particular attention at the time; but upon his entering the box again, Maj. Rathburn rose and asked the intruder his business. He rushed past without making a reply, and placing his pistol close to the President's head, and actually in contact with it, fired; then instantly springing upon the cushioned balustrade, he made a backward plunge, with his knife aimed at the face or breast of Mr. Lincoln. Major Rathburn, springing forward to protect the President, received a stab in the arm. The murderer then jumped upon the stage and effected his escape. The rapidity with which the attack was committed upon the President was astounding. Mrs. Lincoln saw the form of a person go down from the box and thought Mr. Lincoln had fallen out, and looking to see if she could see him on the floor, clearly saw the culprit jump to the stage. When all was over, she turned her eyes towards the box and saw that Mr. Lincoln's head had dropped forward upon his breast, and at once realized what had transpired. From the moment the President was shot to the time of his death, he was insensible and exhibited no signs of pain. He recognized no one. In fact it is believed he had not opened his eyes. Blood troubled his breathing often, making it exceedingly difficult.

Army News.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Gen. Ord has issued the following order: All officers of the Army of Northern Virginia who were not present at the surrender of that army by Lee, on the 9th April, are hereby informed of the terms of capitulation extended to them, and that they can at once avail themselves of the same by coming within the lines of the United States forces, at or near Richmond, laying down their arms and receiving their paroles.

The gentleman who communicates the above information, says that Lee did not, after the surrender, repair to North Carolina, but has been remaining at Appomattox C. H., to carry out the terms of capitulation, and was supposed by this time that he is in Richmond, Grant having extended to him through courtesy an escort of 100 cavalry. The best possible feeling exists between the two Generals.

Nothing definite has recently been heard from Johnston's army. It is the impression that it will be disbanded, or allowed to waste away by desertion, provided no [illegible] the discordant elements be [illegible].

NEW YORK, April 1[illegible].—[illegible]

It is stated that information has been received at the French Embassy, of the danger of the Emperor Napoleon.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 12th.—The steamers Sanborn and [illegible] arrived to-day from Wilmington. [illegible] number of others.

Foreign.

NEW YORK, April 1[illegible].—European dates of April 1st have been received. The [illegible] steamer has arrived with over two and a quarter millions in specie. She also brought several captains of blockade runners whose vessels had been [illegible] gone.

The French Government will probably send one or two steamers to accompany the two that are sent by the English Government with the Great Eastern across the Atlantic at the time of laying the Atlantic cable. It is hoped the United States Government will do the same.

It is stated that Napoleon will leave Paris early in May, not returning until [illegible] his presence having recommended [illegible] in the country.

In an allocution delivered [illegible] the Pope expressed surprise and sorrow at the sad events which have recently taken place in [illegible]. His Holiness hoped Maximilian would [illegible] the course upon which he has entered [illegible], the just desires of the [illegible] thereby thanked the [illegible] religious liberty [illegible] and the liberty of the church, prospects [illegible] of the secular [illegible].

LIVERPOOL, April [illegible].—The London Times to-day has an editorial on the amended Constitution of the United States, and says it is impossible to find an excuse for it. [illegible] It ironically credits the framers of the scheme with peculiar wisdom in selecting the first of April for its inauguration.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—The city was perfectly quiet last night and has been generally resumed to-day. The [illegible] withdrawn from the streets, but [illegible] is kept under arms ready [illegible] first indication of a disturbance. [illegible] people will have [illegible] to-morrow and render any further [illegible] unnecessary. An immense audience attended the meeting at Platt's Hall yesterday. A committee of [illegible] citizens was appointed [illegible] make [illegible] for the funeral obsequies on Thursday next.

The following order was issued by Major General McDowell this afternoon, and explains itself:

HEADQUARTERS, Department of the Pacific, San Francisco, April 17, 1865.—It has come to the knowledge of the Major General Commanding, that there have been found within this department persons so utterly infamous as to exult over the assassination of the President of the United States. Such persons become virtually accessories after the fact, and will at once be arrested by any officer or Provost Marshal or member of the police having knowledge of the case. Any paper so offending or expressing any sympathy in any way whatever with the act, will be at once seized and suppressed.

By order of Major General McDowell.

Fire at Salem.

SALEM, April 17.—About 2 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the Belvidere Saloon and burned all the buildings between Griswold's and Holman's Blocks, on Commercial street, comprising Strang & Co.'s tin store, Gilbert's shoe store, a barber shop, Starr's tin store, Belvidere Saloon, American Hotel and Wright & Fralavogue's grocery. Griswold's Block and warehouse in the rear narrowly escaped the conflagration. Fortunately, soon after the fire broke out, a heavy shower of rain fell, which no doubt, prevented the flames from spreading more. The loss is estimated at about $26,000. No insurance. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

THE NEW SUNDAY LAW.—This law is to go into operation on the first of May. In order that its provisions may be more generally known, we publish Sec. 653 of the Criminal Code, which contains the law in relation to this matter:

SEC. 653. If any person shall keep open any store, shop, grocery, ball alley, billiard room, tippling house, or any place of amusement, or shall do any secular business or labor, other than works of necessity or mercy, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, or the Lord's day, such person upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not less than five nor more than fifty dollars. The following are deemed works of necessity: The buying and selling of meats, fish and milk at retail before nine o'clock in the morning; the buying and selling drugs and medicines at retail or upon prescription; the selling of food to be eaten on the premises where sold, and the keeping open of barber shops and bathing at such trade until ten o'clock in the morning.

WAITING FOR OFFICE.—[illegible] the officials and ex-officials [illegible] they have not been [illegible] at present in Washington [illegible] parties are there opposing [illegible] son has made application for the [illegible] of Customs at Port Angeles. The matter of these appointments will not [illegible].

MOUNT BAKER.—[illegible] a lofty peak away to the [illegible] is now much [illegible] clouds of smoke have [illegible].

SEIZED PAPERS.—[illegible] that the [illegible] newspaper offices destroyed [illegible] Saturday.

THE SOVEREIGNS OF [illegible].—[illegible]

TWO INVESTIGATING COMMITTEES.—Just before Congress adjourned, a [illegible] Committee of Investigation [illegible] was appointed consisting of [illegible] and Foster, on the part [illegible] doolittle, of Wisconsin, [illegible] of California and Hubbard, of Iowa, on the part of the House. The cause of failure of the Overland Mail contractors is to be investigated by Senators Stewart and Nesmith, appointed as a special committee, by the Senate.

THE GREAT ATTENTION, AND WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND, in her humble judgment, is the Wheeler & Wilson Family Sewing machine. It is justly called by many who have used it, "the Queen of Machines." We have never heard a dissenting voice on the subject, where it has been tried.

E. G. Randall, Agent for Portland.

LETTERS FROM TRAVELLER—No. 1.

ESQUIMAULT, V. I., April [illegible].

[illegible] some twenty-four hours [illegible] in the harbor of the [illegible] this port. In a few moments [illegible] were on board looking for passengers to Victoria. For $10, a party of ten persons, including, [illegible] the trip up and back. [illegible] Over a smooth Macadam road [illegible] and a half hours, [illegible] whirled away [illegible].

[illegible]

[illegible] Victoria, just now, is [illegible] the former are rather numerous [illegible] young and so varied [illegible] volumes. The largest, apparently, is that of the Hat on Pacific, built in 1859-'60, below the [illegible] water. It is a solid structure, [illegible] with the substantial [illegible] always [illegible] and their friends, neatly kept, yet without show of much architectural beauty. Other brick buildings on Wharf, Yates and Government streets, seem to be equally solid structures on their rock foundations; yet all and the appearance of former years, instead of the light and graceful modern styles of our brick stores in Portland. The streets also were narrow and irregular, though clean and solid, affording good roads. Government street has been [illegible] out three miles, affording a fine drive. The roads into and about Victoria are known to be very good. We passed Mr. McFie's Congregational Church on Government street—a wooden building, well kept, but painted a dark slate color, which gives it an oldish look. Mr. McF. has returned to England, and the church is now occupied by a Presbyterian Minister. The United Scotch Presbyterian Church, built at a cost of $12,000, looks inviting at a distance. Its congregation is now waiting the arrival of Dr. Sutherland from Scotland, to assume the pastorate. The Wesleyan Church, erected under the auspices of Dr. Evans, in 1859-'60, is a large and inviting structure, and is still under his care. The old Episcopal Church, is on the hill eastward, fronting Admiralty Inlet, or the mountains of Washington Territory, or "America," as Mr. L. called it. There are other Episcopal churches in the city I think, but I did not observe them. The large brick Synagogue, near the Presbyterian Church, is a costly structure, one would suppose, for such a city.

We observed a very large number of saloons in and about the city, and the usual dullness which such establishments produce and cherish.

Some fine and well kept residences are seen in and around the city. We noticed one Public School, and the children coming away about 2 P. M. The Colonial Government of the Island appropriated $40,000 for public schools for the current year.

We met a few old friends—Mr. Pritchard, of Portland, Mr. Anderson, of Cathlamet, and Dr. Ferdome, of Nisqually, and the American Consul, Mr. Francis, on board our steamer. We called at the store of Mr. Francis, formerly of Portland.

This trip of four hours paid well, curing of seasickness, of which the ladies and children suffered severely, and furnishing a pleasant episode in the journey of your friend, TRAVELER.

P. S.—We rode under a Confederate flag—a dingy, dirty looking rag, flying or suspended over a saloon—a fit place for it; both signs of rebellion against that which is good and right. T.

New York Gold Quotations [illegible]

THE MARKETS.—By the steamer Brother Jonathan we have California dates to the 8th. [illegible]

THE OVERLAND MAIL.—[illegible] at Washington city yesterday, [illegible] Senator Williams, at Washington, [illegible] the Overland Stage Company [illegible] were fully awake to the necessity of a daily mail through Oregon, and they hope the steamship companies are particular every year, may yet see the propriety of assisting the country in this respect, even if it does not fill their coffers quite to overflowing upon each successive trip.

PRESENTATION FRONTS.—The many compliments, presentations, etc., between firemen of the United States, has resulted in the invention of a fire-hat front which is termed a presentation front. "Monumental Engine Company No. 6," of San Francisco, recently presented to "Americus Company No. 6," of New York, one of the most beautiful affairs in the shape of a presentation front ever seen in the country. It was of solid silver, ten inches high, by eight inches wide, and very elegantly chased and engraved. The "Rincon Hose," of the Bay city, have also lately presented a handsome front to the "Harry Howard Hose" of New York. Mr. Wm. O'Brien, who returned from a visit to New York a few days since, brought with him two fronts for "Columbian Engine Company No. 3," of this city, presented by "Cataract Engine Company No. 25," and "McClellan Hose No. 30," of New York. Foreman Young of No. 3, was a former member of the Hose Company "No. 30," when it was known as the "Laurel Hose Company," and such testimonials are pleasant to receive. The representatives of the departments of the two cities seem to have a mutual appreciation, as No. 3 have received an elegant plate of portraits, representing the Board of Engineers of the New York department, in return for one similar to it, taken in photography by Chief Engineer Buchtel, representing the various officers of the Portland Department. The presents are on exhibition at the show windows of Goldsmith Brothers, Front street.

SUCCESSFULLY LAUNCHED.—The steam propeller tug boat built in San Francisco for towing vessels over the Columbia river Bar, was successfully launched on the morning of the 9th inst. The Call's description of the scene is worth reproducing. It says: "Quite a number of persons gathered to see the little craft slide from the ways into her proper element, and a number of guests were on board. As the tide had not attained its highest stage the boat had to jump about five feet down, which feat she accomplished as gracefully as any gymnast that ever pulled the flying trapeze. At the bow of the vessel floated the Union Jack, at the stern the American ensign and amidships the private signal of the little craft, inscribed with her name, Rebboni, a term of Masonic significance. On the shore were a number of spectators and a demijohn, concerning which latter there prevailed among the spectators great unanimity. The Rebboni then took seriously to water."

THE NEW TALKING TELEGRAPH.—We learn from the Victoria papers that Superintendent Haines, of the northern telegraph, was in that city on the 6th, en route to Seattle, to proceed at once to the survey of the route over which it is intended to continue the line from Seattle. The route selected from there to Victoria would be by Port Angeles and Race Rocks, or across the Straits of De Haro, Lopez and San Juan Island to Cadboro Bay, and thence into Victoria. The connection between the latter place and New Westminster is complete, and the continuous line from this city through may be finished by the 4th of July, upon receipt of the submarine cable.

WHERE WE MAY BE SEEN.—If occasionally happens that little inadvertancies may be found in our city items, which omissions or mistakes may give rise to indignation, or that we may say something to create pleasant feeling is not unlikely. We do not expect to satisfy every person by our course, to do so is not within our mortal grasp, hence, any who may feel aggrieved, or have anything else to say, and wish to take a look at us, are advised that we may be seen as accurate as life, on the west side of First street, two or three doors above Washington street, at the entrance to Dalton's Gallery, where Mr. Desmond has placed a shadow of our outside.

[illegible]—The determined Dignity, Master of the [illegible], is making another effort to navigate his little [illegible] through all the quicksands and shoals that have threatened her destruction during the past few months, and turn her, if he can, once more to profitable account. For this purpose he advertises at Olympia for a good business man with a capital of $3,000 or $4,000, as a partner. Give him a chance.

NEW MINING COMPANY.—The Hamilton Gold and Silver Mining Company, was organized on Saturday last, with a capital stock of $80,000, in 800 shares of $100 each, one foot to the share. The mining ground belonging to the company is 800 feet on the Hamilton Lode, and 200 feet of the Garfield discovery claim. A. E. Watt, Harry Seymour, N. R. Lane, W. M. Loryea, and Orin Joynt, are the Directors.

THE CASE OF TREASONABLE UTTERANCES.—John Kelly, the person arrested on Sunday for disorderly conduct, and uttering treasonable language on the streets of this city, upon being arraigned before Recorder McCoy yesterday, plead guilty to the first charge and paid a fine. The latter charge was not substantiated by any evidence, and he was discharged.

NEW STEAMER.—The Montana, a magnificent steamship, built in New York by Webb & Bell, for the P. M. S. S. Co., was launched on the 13th of March. She is the fourth steamer built in New York for that company within two years past. When will the California and Oregon line have their new steamers, which were building at the Greenpoint Yard, over a year ago?

PASSPORTS.—Passengers between Victoria and Portland complain bitterly at a depreciation of their passports, stating that when they left Victoria there was some $300 worth of them on hand, and when they reached Astoria they were not worth shucks, the collector stating there was no necessity for passports, going or returning.

HELD TO BAIL.—Joseph Dean, arrested on a charge of threatening the life of Martin Stefan, upon examination before Recorder McCoy yesterday, was held to bail in the sum of $400 to keep the peace.

GLASS BLOWERS, ETC.—The national troupe of glass blowers company, with the celebrated banjoist, J. Montague, and the one handed violinist and living skeleton [illegible], will appear on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at Turn Verein Hall.

THE STOCK AND EXCHANGE BOARD, met at their rooms at the usual hour yesterday morning, but closed without any transactions after adopting resolutions in memory of the death of President Lincoln.

Special Meeting of Ellison Encampment No. 1, I. O. O. F. this evening at 7½ o'clock. Punctual attendance is requested. By order of the C. P.

Willamette Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M.—Holds its Regular Communication on the 1st and 3d Mondays of each month at 7 o'clock P. M. Brethren in good standing are invited to attend. By order of W. M.

Brandreth's Vegetable Pills.—This medicine, of enduring efficacy, is justly prized as a corrector of all disorders of the stomach and bowels, the common symptoms of which are costiveness, spasms, loss of appetite, sick headache, giddiness, sense of bloating after meals, dizziness of the eyes, drowsiness and cramping in the stomach and bowels. These symptoms being suffered to remain, a torpid state of the liver supervenes, and all the horrors of dyspepsia are experienced. Every function of the frame is to a certain extent prostrated; but a little perseverance in the use of BRANDRETH'S PILLS will soon restore the system from this state of misery. Two or three doses will convince the afflicted of their salutary influence. The stomach will readily regain its strength, a healthy action of the liver will soon take place, and instead of listlessness, heat, pain and jaundiced appearance, activity, strength and renewed health will be the blessed result. Brandreth's Pills are sold at 25 cents a box, enveloped in full directions. Purchase none unless my private Government stamp is on the box. See upon it "B. Brandreth" in white letters.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—It renovates, purifies and strengthens the system, and aids the stomach in the performance of its functions. It is a sovereign specific for imparting strength, vigor and tone to the system, and possessing the curative powers for all diseases arising from a disordered stomach. In the most severe cases of cramps, diarrhoea and weakness in the stomach, the "Bitters" have been rigidly tested, and always with the greatest success.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. ap12

"Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs."
NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!
Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy, but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is [illegible] that many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but [illegible]

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!
Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM!

He Had a Cold!
Which, by a too injudicious expression, had been converted [illegible]

NEWELL'S

The Last Hours of Ex-Governor Hicks.—At seven o'clock this morning Thomas H. Hicks, late United States Senator from Maryland, breathed his last at the Metropolitan Hotel in Washington, in the sixty eighth year of his age. He had been detained from his seat in the Senate for the last two weeks by what was supposed to be a slight indisposition, superinduced by excessive mental labor. On Friday morning last, after a night of unusually refreshing sleep, he was suddenly stricken by paralysis, just as he was in the act of rising. From that time until within a few hours of his decease, he remained speechless, but entirely conscious and intelligent, seeming to take an interest in everything addressed to him and fully realized his near approach to the close of life. Toward his intimate friends, who called to see him, he exhibited deep emotion.

Such was particularly the case when visited by the President of the United States, who, on being apprized of his condition, hastened to manifest his respect toward the dying patriot and statesman. As he came mournfully to the bedside of the man who had stood by him with such unaltering courage in the hour of trial his generous heart was deeply moved by the consciousness that he was about to lose one of his truest counsellors and his country one of its most faithful friends. The scene did honor to the Chief Magistrate of the Nation, who had thus turned aside from the stern cares of State to pay the homage of grateful affection to a faithful coadjutor, around whom the shadows of death were falling, and who, while passing away, evinced by emotion and tears his deep solicitude for the salvation of his country.

The visits of Reverdy Johnson, ex-Governor Thomas, Webster, Colonel John Powel, of Mississippi, and other distinguished friends, were met by the signs of tenderness and affection on the part of the deceased. To all who came near him in the spirit of friendship and sympathy, he manifested, even in the hour of death, those generous qualities that had opened his way to success in public life, which had brightened his path through the varied scenes of an eventful career, and at last shed their gentle halo around his dying bed. But the most touching and interesting feature of the closing scene was witnessed in the moral grandeur displayed by the deceased in his intercourse with his spiritual adviser, Rev. Mr. Nadel, to whom he indicated, in the most impressive manner, his readiness for the approaching change.

Unable to speak, he signified his cheerful submission to the will of an all-wise Providence, by firmly and positively lifting his right hand, when asked if he felt prepared for the closing scene. In the lifting of that hand there was an eloquence that no tongue could equal; and, to that mute and solemn attestation to the rectitude of his life, to that silent, touching symbol of his peace with God, every eye yielded the tribute of a generous tear. It has seldom, if ever, been the privilege of man to witness a more impressive and majestic death-bed scene. It was marked by the most intrepidity, firmness, self-possession, gentleness of heart and tenderness of affections which were the chief characteristics of the life of the deceased.

Charleston as it is.—A correspondent of the South Carolina Advocate thus describes the desolation of the city:

Passing through the lower wards of the city, you would be particularly struck with the sad desolation. The elegant mansions and families, thoroughfares once rejoicing in wealth and refinement and the theatre of busy life—the well-known and fondly cherished churches—some of them ancient landmarks, where large assemblages were wont to bow at the holy altars, and spacious halls that once blazed with light and rung with festal songs, are all deserted, somber and cheerless; and this is enhanced by the forbidding aspect of that vast district of the city which was laid in ashes three years ago, and which remains in unmolested ruins as the monument of Charleston's long and dreary pause in the grand march of improvement. Here you perceive her humiliation.

Here is a description by another correspondent of what Charleston was before she was placed under the Union fire:

Both harbor and city somewhat resemble New York and its bay in miniature. There is, however, this striking difference: that the portion of Charleston called the Battery, and corresponding to the New Battery and to State street, is the most fashionable part of the city. The city is regularly built and extends nearly two miles in length and a mile and a half in breadth. Some of the streets are from sixty to seventy feet broad, and some are narrow—for instance, King street, the Broadway of Charleston. The streets run mostly parallel to each other, running across from river to river, and intersected longitudinally nearly at right angles. They are shaded with beautiful trees. Several of the houses are embowered in a profusion of foliage and flowers. Many of the dwellings have piazzas and are ornamented with vines and creepers, while the gardens attached to them bloom with the orange, the peach, and other trees and shrubs in great variety.

Major Pritchard, Commander of the post at Fort Riley, is a strict military disciplinarian, and withall a good fellow. While going the rounds, a raw recruit, who, probably being on duty for the first time, failed to salute the Major, when the following colloquy ensued:

Major: "Who are you?"
Recruit: "I think they call me one of Company H, sir."
Major: "Are you one of the raw recruits?"
Recruit: "Yes, sir."
Major: "Do you know who I am?"
Recruit: "No, sir."
Major: "I am the Major commanding this post."
Recruit: "Is yes?"
Major, (emphatically): "I am Major commanding this post!"
Recruit: "And sure it's a d—d good place, av you a mind to keep it?"—Leavenworth Conservative.

Old Dr. Beecher once met a certain independent, though somewhat offensive little animal in one of his walks, and having no other missile at command, threw a large book at it him which he was carrying under his arm. Subsequently, he was asked one day why he did not reply to some insignificant scribbler who had assailed him in a newspaper, and his reply was as quaint as it was suggestive. Said he, "I once issued an entire volume at a skunk, but he got the better of me."

The editor of the Raleigh Recorder says: "The editor of the Recorder is now absent looking up supplies for his family; and in his absence he would call attention to a much-neglected duty of our people—that of praying for the editor of their religious journal. Brethren, pray for him; you pray for your pastors, your Sabbath School superintendent, and others of the church—why not pray for him? He needs your prayers, and feels the need of them.

During a debate in the rebel Congress, on the 6th, Mr. Burnett of Kentucky, said that there was plenty of food in the country. Mr. Orr of South Carolina, replied that he knew of hundreds—even thousands of soldiers' families, who had not tasted meat in the last six months. Mr. Graham of North Carolina, remarked that that was the case in his State.

"A boy, eighteen years old, recently from Wales, was examined as a witness at the Mayor's office yesterday, and was asked what his business was. 'I'm in the army,' he replied. 'In the army, how did you get there?' 'A man offered to get me a situation, and he got me one for three years.' [Laughter.] 'And what did he give you?' 'No one cent?'

A friend, who sported a ferocious pair of whiskers, meeting Mr. O'Connell in Dublin, the latter said, "When do you mean to place your whiskers on the peace footing?"

"When you place your tongue on the civil list," was the rejoinder.

Maximilian is just entering upon his career of troubles. By the latest advices we learn that intrigues are already ripe among the party that appointed him to power, and a coalition was said to be forming between the liberal and eclesiastical parties to drive him from his throne.

WISTAR'S BALSAM

OF

HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY

HALF A CENTURY,

WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the

THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST,

INCLUDING EVEN

CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named disease, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of "one found cure" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known, so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve and to cure disease, exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unparalleled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of [illegible]

PULMONARY COMPLAINTS

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these, —

E. Boyden, M. D., Exeter, Me.
Alexander Hatch, M. D., China, Me.

W. B. Lynch, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.
Abraham Skillman, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.
H. D. Martin, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of all professions, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas; for the fame and virtue of Wistar's Balsam have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

After October 1st, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY in the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper, with a fine steel engraving, with the printed names of SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Boston, Mass., and John D. Park, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as the facsimile of the signatures of "I. Butts," "Sanford & Park," and "H. Wistar, M. D."

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN

DOUBLE TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN TURBINE HAS many advantages over all other Wheels, both Turbines and Overshot.

It has competed successfully with every variety of Wheel, and has always proved itself victorious.

This Wheel has been in use nearly Three Years in the States and HAS NEVER MADE A FAILURE.

It is CHEAPER than an Overshot, MORE DURABLE, and will YIELD A HIGHER PER CENT OF POWER from the same quantity of water. We have introduced five on this coast. They are not all in operation yet, but will be in a few days. The following testimonial is from an old and experienced Mill wright well known in this State:

WESTPORT, CLATSOP CO., OREGON, Nov. 14th, 1864.

Messrs. Leffel & Myers, Dear Sirs: We have plenty of water now, and your DOUBLE TURBINE is in successful operation. We are satisfied that your Wheel is fully equal, if not superior to the Overshot. With the same water that the Overshot uses We can do more work with the Turbine than with the Overshot. I have tried many Wheels which were claimed to be superior to an Overshot, but yours is the first I have found. Hence we do not hesitate to recommend the American Double Turbine as the most efficient economizer of water in our knowledge.

JOHN WEST & CO.

We desire all who want Wheels to visit the following named places and have ocular demonstration of the above facts:

John West & Co., West Fork, Clatsop County, Oregon; Lewis Love, Vancouver, W. T.; T. P. Lonfong, Eola City, [illegible]; Hampton Kelly, three miles East of Portland; Savier & Co., Oregon City. Address

Dec. 2, 1864. LEFFEL & MYERS, Portland, Oregon, Care Richards & McCraken.

N. B.—A new supply of Wheels will be brought out next May or June. Orders will be filed and supplied according to date of order. d-2Idw6m

MOTTO—"The Singer Sewing Machines are the only Machines that can Sew all kinds of Cloth, and with all kinds of Thread."

Singer's Letter A Family Machine is the best and cheapest Machine in the world for Family Sewing. There is no doubt as to the value of our Machines for manufacturing purposes, but it is only of late that the public began to learn that the essential elements which have been adapted to the heaviest work, will also be the elements to be employed in a Family Machine.

We would ask for our Letter A Machine the attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want Machines for light Manufacturing Purposes. They embody the principles of the Manufacturing Machines, making, like them, the interlocked stitch and are destined to be as celebrated for FAMILY SEWING and Light Manufacturing purposes, as our Manufacturing Machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES are valuable in proportion to the number of things they can do well. See what ours can do before making a purchase.

Any parties desirous of seeing the above mentioned lock, its new way and easy mode of opening the same, can call at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

Gloucester, March 23, 1864.

Messrs. Tilton & McFarland, Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 15th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We rested our books, papers and [illegible] After the fire the so-called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in the fire, we noticed McKenzie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led me to further investigation, and we found to safe, because of that there is the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. M. K. & H.'s cellar, such as lard, pork, etc., their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the Mother's business and had but little in the cellar. There was another Lillie's safe here subjected to the same fire faring, however no better than ours.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
(Signed,) GEO. L. CHESBORO & CO

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS AT tended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains, and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the Lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, and [illegible] IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

EUREKA

IMPROVED SELF-ADJUSTING

CLOTHES WRINGER

AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM AT OREGON STATE FAIR in 1864.

Abstract from Examining Committee's Report of the San Francisco "MECHANICS' INSTITUTE" INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION, OF 1864:

"CLOTHES WRINGERS.—A variety of these Indispensable Household Helps were found competing for public favor. Though none of them are entitled as a Premium, we consider the EUREKA, exhibited by M. E. Travel & Co., worthy of honorable mention." (Note—No Premiums were awarded to articles of Eastern Manufacture.)

The EUREKA CLOTHES WRINGERS are made superior to all others in CONVENIENCE and DURABILITY by the use of

PATENT ELLIPTICAL STEEL SPRINGS,

Which produce a UNIFORM PRESSURE upon garments and Clothes of every size.

The IMPROVED EUREKA has the HINGE CLAMP, which will fit any Tub or Box perfectly. Its construction is simple and excellent. Every Family should have one. It will soon RE-PAY ITS COST IN SAVING Time Labor and Clothes. M. E. TRAVER & CO., General Agents.

THE SAME OLD GREENBACK GAME!

I AM STILL COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES AT PAR (and have been since Dec. 17, 1862,) for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, Corner of Morrison and Front streets. I feel it due to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

JACOB MAYER

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the leases were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest, for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount Mr. Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.
